

Space still available!!

Pre-Conference Institute prior to PCAEYC 2012 Conference: As A Teacher Grows

From Administrator to Innovator:

Transforming your program to support reflective teaching

Wednesday, February 29 - Friday, March 2, 2012

Seattle Airport Marriott, 3201 South 176th, Seattle, WA, 98188

This 2.5 day institute offered by, Margie Carter & Deb Curtis, authors of The Visionary Director, with special guest speakers: Christina Aubel, Puget Sound ESD, WA; Peter Blair, Merage JCC Orange County, CA; Sarah Felstiner, Hilltop Children's Center, WA; Michael Koetje, Pierce College, WA; and Kristie Norwood, Chicago Commons Child Development, IL.

- ❖ Discover how supervisors, directors, owners, and managers of early childhood programs from across the country are transforming their organizations into learning communities for children, families, and teachers.
- ❖ Be guided by Margie, Deb, and their Harvest Resources Associates to rethink your core values, organizational culture, and professional development systems.
- ❖ Work in facilitated learning groups designed to demonstrate learning communities with the elements of a culture of inquiry and dialogue that generate reflective teaching and can be used in your center.
- ❖ Hear stories from program leaders who transformed their centers to create intellectual vitality, collaborative relationships, and exemplary programs for children.

Register now for Institute at: www.pcaeyc.org

$300 by Jan 15; $350 includes two lunches, one dinner; special hotel group rate $135/night.

Registration now open for

PCAEYC ANNUAL CONFERENCE: As A Teacher Grows

Saturday, March 3, 2012

Visit www.pcaeyc.org to see the exciting conference offerings!